

We listen to XM all the time and feel that limiting there ability to send us information is wrong. We love the ability to choose what we listen to which conventional radio and television does not offer. Thank you,
Fred Baensch